Use this sheet to review each chapter. Best practice is to close the book and put away any notes, and just write the things that you remember. This will help you gain confidence in writing about concepts but also deepen your understanding as you explain things in your own words.

What are the top two or three key points in this chapter for me?
what are the top two or three key points in this chapter for me:
How can I explain the argument of this chapter in my own words?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?
How can I make use of this chapter in my own studies?  What remains unanswered that I might need to find out through further reading?